

REPUBLICAN

- Counties where more than half of the population is white and have relatively low education achievement, such as bachelor/graduate degree
- Counties where more than half of the population is white and have warmer winter
- Counties with very small portion of Asian American and less than half of the population as African American

DEMOCRATIC

- Counties where less than half of the population is white, with very low teen birth rate and less than a quarter of population is native American, and relatively high school enrollment and very high HIV prevalence rate
- Counties with high population density and where less than half of the population is white
- Counties with less than one third of the population as white and relatively high diabetes rate
- Counties where infant mortality rate is low
- Counties that has relatively high rate of graduate degree achievement, high-populated and less than a quarter of the population working in sales and office occupations but high sexually transmitted infections rate